SCHOOL BOARD

SUPERINTENDENT'S SECRETARY

Mrs. Kane

OUR PRINCIPAL

To our chief navigotor, Mr. Petrich, we express our heartfelt gratitude for a course well chortered. It was he who mapped out our voyage and has kept us on that course.

Although sailing has sometimes been rough, we have reached our cherished destination as a result of his careful strategy. Due to his wise and superb novigation, we have been oble to reach port without becoming grounded in the sandbars.

Con you imagine a ship without o coptain? Well, that is whot Griffith High would be like without Mr. Paul Petrich. In a school the size of Griffith, it is imperative to hove someone who con shoulder the responsibilities and ossume the leadership. His excellent leadership has brought Griffith through many rough spots. To some of you, Mr. Petrich's office is a very mysterious room, but to o few it is a common resting place. No matter how you regard it, many important decisions ore made there. Just imagine yourself as the head of Griffith High for just one day. People would be running into your office asking you what they should do about this problem and that one; then there might be an unexpected important quest coming to look over the school, so you would have to drop everything to show him around the school personally. All in all, Griffith High wouldn't be the smooth running school it is today without Mr. Petrich.

Coach Dick Beck's Panthers started the 1956 campaign with a feam composed mainly of juniors. GRAND

London Bridge

OUR KING AND QUEEN

Dennis Spickard and Carol Lewis, the 1956 King and Queen, being crowned by the 1955 Monarchs, Arlyne Gatlin and David Pauline.

1956 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The enchanting atmosphere of the Crystal Ballroom in the Gary Hotel, decorated in accordance with the theme "Stardust," was the scene of the 1956 Junior-Senior Prom. After three worderful hours of dancing to the music of thicklesley and his Orchestra the long awaited moment came. Denny and Carol were crowned King and Queen. Arlene and Dave, last year's monarch's presented the happy couple with a gift. Denny and Carol then led the Grand March around the hall.

The Juniors worked long and hard to make this year's Prom a complete success. Committees were arganized and they began long before the glorious night to work on such things as making descrations, sending out invitations, and planning refreshments.

Many couples enjoyed coke parties preceding the Prom, and many also ended a perfectly beautiful evening by eating at their favorite restaurant and attending an all-day picnic at the Dunes or at Turkey Run the following day.
